

SCENE NOTE: They have come to kill David and he knows it. At this point, he can literally read their minds. He has just killed Ira because Ira had asked him to "relieve his pain". To David, killing him made sense, so naturally he is frustrated and angry because they are persecuting him for something he thought was "right"...

INT. HOLDING PEN - "THE CELL" - MOMENTS LATER

David paces behind the heavy steel gate like a caged tiger.

Elizabeth, Victoria, and Marcus enter.

They approach the gate cautiously. David is in AGONY.

DAVID

How can you look at me that way?

They stop.

DAVID (cont'd)

I didn't ask for this. I did not ask to be your guinea pig. I am in pain because of YOU!

ELIZABETH

Why did you kill him?

DAVID

He asked me to end his pain, so I did. I feel life through this body and I hear the words in your head and I've concluded that life is nothing but pain. So I did what he asked.

He looks at Elizabeth.

You look at me and you fear me. But all I am is what I've taken from you. Because I am nothing on my own. I am NO ONE. There is only DARKNESS inside me. I feel everything yet I am DISCONNECTED.

Elizabeth is frozen in horror. David then looks at Victoria.

And how is it that the one with the coldest heart is the only one to show compassion for me?

(beat)

But I am not your son.

David grinds his teeth while peering through the bars of the cell.

(CRAZED, FURIOUS)
I am NO ONE!!!!

Enough of this shit!

Marcus pulls his GUN from his waistband.

VICTORIA WAIT!

BAM! Marcus shoots David in the chest. His body flies back.
